

Discussion Questions for Second Verse by Jennifer Walkup

Disclaimer: Contains spoilers!

What significance does the title Second Verse have? What do you think the author's meaning was behind it?

During the séance, when Lange first hears the words in the barn, what did you think they meant?

When Vaughn first sang his song, Abyss, for Lange, did you find any of the lyrics foreshadowing for the events that occur later in the book?

Who did you suspect was behind the threats Lange was receiving?

Vaughn is a songwriter and musician and Lange is a visual artist. Discuss what roles their art plays in helping them discover their past and secrets.

How does Lange initially react to the truth about her past? How do those feelings and beliefs evolve by the end of the book?

When Lange discovers Ginny's letters and journals how does she feel? How does that change once she knows the truth?

Discuss the similarities between Lange and Vaughn's relationship and Ginny and Beau's. Also, the differences.

What was your favorite part of Second Verse? Least favorite?